

Supply Chain Costing Quiz

- 1) We would conduct a costing of the supply chain for all of the reasons below except?
 - a. To advocate and plan for funding
 - b. To better design and plan systems
 - c. To inform decision making on supply chain policies and financing
 - d. To inform decision making on fees for supply chain services
 - e. To determine which supply chain design results in better performance

- 2) Two outputs of a costing exercise are supply chain costs specific to each _____ and _____

- 3) If you have $1000 worth of commodities, with an associated supply chain cost of 100 dollars, then the supply chain cost represents _____% of the total commodity value

- 4) Budgeting is the same as costing True or False

- 5) When doing a costing exercise the term commodity throughput refers to?

- 6) Four main categories of supply chain costs are: Procurement, Management, _____ and _____

- 7) Should supply chain costing reports be given by the national level or by individual levels?

- 8) A costing exercise will tell you how well your system is performing. True or False

- 9) To conduct a costing study you need which of the following data:
 - a. Data on numbers of assets and supply chain activities
 - b. Data on cost and value rates for individual assets and activities
 - c. Costs of applicable overhead (security for facilities, power, etc.)
 - d. Data on commodity throughput
 - e. All of the above